Directions for interested travelers-

Where to find wild horses:

All herds are at least one hour or more from any town and require a high clearance vehicle, ability to change a tire. Bring extra food, water and appropriate clothing for the weather. Do not go on the dirt roads in very wet conditions. There is often no cell service so you must be prepared to be self- sufficient.

Arizona- Salt River Wild Horses

Nevada -<https://www.onlyinyourstate.com/nevada/wild-horses-nv/>

Montana- Contact the <http://www.pryormustangs.org/tours/>

They have 2023 tours booking and they fill fast. They leave out of the Wild Mustang Center in Lovell, Wyoming .

Utah- Onaqui Wild Horses- one of the most photographed and easy to find herds. This is a self guided tour.

For the shortest route, take I-80 west from Salt Lake City to Exit 99 toward Stansbury Park and Tooele. Travel south, continuing on Highway 36 about 40 miles through Tooele, Stockton and Rush Valley. Watch for the sign marking the turnoff toward Fish Springs Wildlife Refuge and the Pony Express Route, about ½ mile beyond mile marker 27. Turn right here onto Lookout Pass Rd/Pony Express Rte a . Follow the main road 25 miles to Simpson Springs Rd . Sightings become increasingly likely through the final half of this leg.

Wyoming- <https://codywyomingadventures.com/tours/red-canyon-wild-mustang/>

Tours run May- Sept. just outside of Cody Wyoming.

I also highly recommend the world class Buffalo Bill Center of the West in Cody.

Sanctuaries- open to the public:

Return to Freedom, Lompoc, CA <https://returntofreedom.org/visit/>

Black Hills Wild Horse Sanctuary, Hot Springs, SD <https://www.wildmustangs.com/contact> 2023
Plans are not finalized yet but should be ready late winter or early spring for booking.
